

FOUR MEET DEATH IN CHICAGO FIRE

Old Wooden Hotel in Flames as Result of Cigarette Dropped Into Waste-basket

DEATH LIST MAY GROW LARGER

Three Are Seriously Injured and One of Them Is Thought to Have Small Chance to Live

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Three men and a woman were burned to death, three men were seriously injured, one probably fatally, and several more suffered minor injuries, in a fire that broke out in the Marco hotel here early today. The victims were trapped in their beds by flames and smoke and never got out of the rooms.

Of the injured, several were hurt but jumping from windows on the third and fourth floors. Many others were trampled on and bruised in the rush to escape.

The dead are:

James D. O'Gara, 30, New Haven, Conn.

E. Benjamin, 40, Chicago.

James Love, 35, Oak Park, Ill.

Miss Pearl Clark, Chicago.

The injured:

Frank Payer, 27, Chicago, will die; Thomas Honan, Chicago, burned about body, seriously injured; James Corcoran, burned about body, seriously injured.

Firemen hurried through the building to arouse those still asleep. Unable to make their way to the two upper floors by means of stairways, which were already in flames, they used their axes to batter exits.

Ladders were strung up the sides of the building and men and women were carried down in the arms of firemen.

The fire is believed to have been caused by a cigarette thrown in a waste paper basket in a room on the fourth floor, where a party of men were playing cards.

The Marco hotel is entirely of wood and burned rapidly.

REICHSTAG RAPS CHANCELLOR

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—By a division of 213 to 97, the reichstag today in effect voted a lack of confidence in the government. The resolution declared that the policy of Chancellor Van Bethman-Hollweg, in opposing the appropriation of money for the Germanizing of eastern Prussia and the dispossession of the Poles there in the interest of German settlers, did not meet with approval of the reichstag.

The vote was a rap at the chancellor and is regarded as a maneuver on the part of the Catholics to get revenge for Von Bethman-Hollweg's stand against the Jesuits.

ROADS OFFER ARBITRATION.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 30.—The railroad managers of the eastern district who refused to grant the wage increases demanded by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Trainmen today offered to arbitrate the differences by a board of from five to nine men, to be appointed by Chief Justice White, of the United States supreme court.

Martin Knapp, presiding judge of the commerce court, and Federal Labor Commissioner C. P. McNeill.

CONFESSION WILL SAVE

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 30.—If Madeline Ciccone, convicted of murder in the first degree, implicates her lover in her crime, she can save her own life. She was convicted of poisoning her husband, and the state alleges Antonio Florio led her to the crime. The court and prosecutor have declared no mercy will be shown unless she gives evidence against Florio.

NORWEGIAN CABINET PICKED

CHRISTIANA, Norway, Jan. 30.—After several days of negotiations in the sick room of Gunner Knudsen, a list of members of the new cabinet has been presented to King Haakon. It stands as follows:

Premier and minister of agriculture, Gunnar Knudsen; public works, Urbye; commerce, Castberg; justice, Abrahamson; war, Keilhau; finance, Omholt; foreign affairs, Ihlen; church, Bryggessaa.

75 FEASTERS ILL

BISMARCK, N. D., Jan. 30.—As a result of eating food of various kinds at a supper given here last night by the Sons of Norway, fully 75 people of Bismarck have been suffering today from the effects of ptomaine poisoning. Doctors have been besieged the entire day. All will recover.

DENY BUCKET SHOP PROBE

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Officials of the Chicago board of trade today denied that they were making an investigation of an alleged plot whereby their quotations were being furnished to bucket shops all over the country.

ADVISES FANCY DRESS FOR M. D.'S

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Physicians and surgeons throughout this section are wondering today whether to follow the advice of Justice Renwick Riddell, of Toronto, and dress like undertakers. Justice Riddell, who spoke at the annual dinner of the faculty and directory of the New York post graduate medical school last night, advised doctors to wear a more distinctive garb.

"No man could distinguish you from undertakers," he said. "You carry a black bag, it is true, but that only makes you look like piano tuners. You ought to wear a three-tailed wig, cocked hat, broadcloth coat, velvet breeches, buckled shoes and carry a long staff topped with a box of perfume. That would be something like it."

DEADLOCK BROKEN M'KINLEY SPEAKER

Combination of Republicans and Democrats Breaks Illinois Tie-up

SENATORSHIP DEAL IS CHARGED

The Democrats Deny They Agreed to Let Republicans Have Long Term for Support

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 30.—William McKinley of Chicago was elected speaker of the house of representatives on the forty-eighth general assembly Wednesday night.

Since Jan. 8 the house members have been deadlocked, preventing the induction into office of the newly elected democratic administration and balloting on the United States senatorship, dates for two events specifically fixed by the state constitution.

Combination Vote Decides. Mr. McKinley's victory was brought about by a combination of democratic and republican votes, with one progressive breaking the ties of party caucus and casting his vote with the winning combination.

It was freely charged that a deal had been made involving the two United States senatorships. Leaders of the republican side do not deny that they expect to land the six year term senatorship.

In accordance with Governor-elect Dunne's wishes the newly elected democratic state officers will be inaugurated Saturday afternoon, Feb. 1.

Dunne Denies Deal. CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Two democratic senators from Illinois was the demand made today by Governor-elect Edward F. Dunne. That was his answer, also, to the rumors that the election of William McKinley to the speakership of the house was the result of a deal whereby the republicans were to get one senator.

REDDIN A DELEGATE. MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—William E. Reddin, convicted dynamiter, at liberty under bond from the Leavenworth federal prison, has been chosen as a delegate from the Milwaukee structural iron workers to the convention to be held in Indianapolis, February 24.

ALDERMAN IS FINED. CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Alderman Al R. Tearney was today found guilty of violating the saloon closing law and fined $20. He will be tried on two other counts, charging the same offense. Tearney's conviction is the result of much newspaper agitation in the last month.

AMERICAN PRINCESS HAS ANIMAL ESCORT

ROME, Jan. 30.—The socialistic press today editorially ex-coriated the city authorities who last night loaned a young leopard and lion from the municipal zoo to the Princess Radziwill to take to a ball.

At the height of the merriment the princess drove onto the ball room floor in a horse-drawn chariot. Seated on either side of her were the municipal leopard and lion.

"It was cruelty to animals," one newspaper declared, "for it was plain to see that the poor beasts were much more terrified by what they saw than were the Roman aristocracy."

The Princess Radziwill is an American, formerly Miss Dorothy Deacon of New York.

It was said that the ancient Roman nobility did not take kindly to last night's innovation attempted by the princess, and that she was greeted with decidedly cold shoulders.

BILL IS AIMED AT BOLTING DELEGATE

Measure Would Compel Convention Representatives to Stick to Party's Choice

SUGGESTED BY CHICAGO AFFAIR

Thought McGovern's Desertion to Bull Moose Forces Caused Drafting of Law

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—(Special.)—Delegates sent to political conventions may hereafter be required to take an oath "faithfully to carry out the wishes of the political party as expressed by its voters at the time of his election."

A measure containing the above provision that the primary be applied to delegates to national conventions and presidential electors was introduced in the assembly today by Assemblyman C. H. Everett of Racine. It is closely modeled after the Oregon law on this subject.

The bill provides that the governor shall issue certificates to the delegates to the different national conventions. The traveling expenses of the delegates are to be paid by the state. The expenses of not more than two delegates are to be paid from each congressional district. Presidential electors are also to be named by the people. The two candidates for the nomination of electors at large receiving the highest number of votes shall be the nominee of the party as the electors at large. There will also be one nomination in each congressional district by each party at the primary.

Presumably the bill was suggested by the action of Governor McGovern at the republican national convention in Chicago, where he was sent as a La Follette delegate. The governor, in opposition to the wishes of Senator La Follette, became a candidate for temporary chairman in collusion with the Roosevelt delegates.

There is a question in the minds of those conversant with the situation if the governor will not consider the bill a personal attack, but it is thought that as the bill is on the face of it a wise one, Mr. McGovern will regard it as the better political course to sign it, should it pass the legislature.

RODENBERRY ATTACKS PASTOR

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—"To tar and feather" the white minister of Niles, Mich., who performed the marriage of George F. Thompson, a negro, to Helen R. Hanson, a 15 year old feeble minded white girl, both of Chicago, was the retribution suggested in the house today by Representative Rodenberry of Georgia.

He made a violent attack upon miscegenation, referring to the Jack Johnson case. Frequent applause marked his speech.

HADLEY SCORES MOOSE

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 30.—The speech of former Governor Hadley of Missouri at the McKinley banquet of the Tippecanoe club last night, in which he maintained that there was no need for a new progressive party, was much discussed among politicians here today.

BOMB SHAKES FLAT

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Men, women and children were thrown from their beds by the explosion of a bomb thrown into a flat building. The building was damaged, but nobody was injured. The building is in the Italian district. The police suspect a black hand plot.

WANT DOMESTIC COURT

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—A committee of Milwaukeeans is expected to go to Madison February 5 to attend the hearing of the assembly municipalities committee on the bill providing Milwaukee with a domestic relations court.

STANDARD OUSTER FAILS

BERLIN, Jan. 30.—The German anti-monopoly bill directed against the Standard Oil company, to prevent that corporation from cornering the petroleum market, practically was killed in committee by the Reichstag.

LABORITES FOR SUFFRAGE

LONDON, Jan. 30.—The national convention of the labor party today by a vote of 850 against 437 adopted a resolution to oppose any franchise reform bill which does not include votes for women.

OIL PRICES JUMP

PITTSBURG, Jan. 30.—Oil jumped seven cents again today. It is the fourth consecutive seven cent advance. Pennsylvania crude is quoted at $2.40. The prices are the highest since 1895.

TO COUNT BALLOTS

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—The assembly this morning voted to go into the merits of the O'Day-Clark contest for a seat in the assembly by counting the ballots.

SAYS WIRE STRIKE IS ONE OF MANY

A. F. of L. Organizer Says Union Men Are Ready to Go Out in Thirty-one Plants

CONGRESS MAY HOLD INQUIRY

Stanley Declares Rankin Trouble Is Logical Outcome of Steel Trust Oppression

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 30.—Thomas Flynn, organizer for the American Federation of Labor, today declared the strike now on in the Rankin and Braddock plants of the American Steel & Wire company, is a part of a great labor movement that the federation has launched against non-union plants. In thirty-one plants, he asserted, union workers are ready to strike. Among those named are two other Pittsburgh plants, and plants in Troy, N. Y.; Cleveland, Ohio; Allentown, Pa.; Anderson, Ind.; Donora, Pa.; Worcester, Mass.; Waukegan, Ill.; Joliet, Ill.; Dekalb, Ill.; San Francisco; South Sharon, Pa., and Salem, Ohio.

Secretary Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor, was to arrive from Washington today to take charge of the strike here.

Braddock mill workers, 1,200 of whom walked out yesterday, today declared a truce until Saturday, when the mill officials say they will propose a wage revision.

Congress May Investigate. WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—A congressional probe of the steel workers' strike at Rankin may result from an investigation which Representative Stanley of Kentucky, now has under way.

The chairman of the former steel trust investigating committee said today that he has asked for information regarding the strike with a view to possible renewal of the probe of the United States Steel corporation.

Secretary Frank Morrison, of the A. F. of L., who is in Rankin, is co-operating with Stanley.

"The trouble at Rankin is just what I expected from disclosures in our investigation," said Stanley. "We received overwhelming evidence that the steel industry is a seething industrial volcano. We developed that the steel corporation runs a black list in rooting out labor unions, operates a system of espionage and forces thousands of its employees into inhuman slavery."

APPROVES INCOME TAX

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 30.—"Hot shots about taxes." "Most taxpayers are neither liars nor dishonest men." "Under the income tax we are getting 80 per cent; under the old personal levy we got only 20 per cent."

"The personal property tax is a source of political corruption in many instances." These are some of the assertions made by Prof. T. S. Adams, member of the Wisconsin tax commission, before the legislature today about the working of the income tax law of the Badger state. A bill before the Minnesota house provides for a similar law.

SAY BRYAN HAS ACCEPTED SEAT IN NEW CABINET

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 30.—The departure for Trenton today of H. C. Wallace, of Washington; H. W. E. Alexander, of Trenton, and E. M. House of Texas, following a conference with W. J. Bryan lead to the widespread rumor here that Bryan was sending a personal message to President-elect Wilson accepting a cabinet position.

Col. Bryan later denied there was any truth in the rumor.

WEATHER

For La Crosse and vicinity: Snow this afternoon and tonight; Friday generally fair; colder.

For Wisconsin: Rain turning to snow and colder tonight; Friday cloudy and colder with snow near Lake Superior.

For Minnesota: Generally fair tonight and Friday; cold wave tonight.

For Iowa: Snow flurries this afternoon; cloudy and much colder tonight with cold wave northeast portion; Friday fair with colder east portion.

Weather Conditions. The weather is fair and moderate; cool in the gulf and Atlantic states; cloudy and unsettled throughout the upper Mississippi Valley and lake region with somewhat higher temperature and colder throughout the northwest with snow from Nebraska to Manitoba and in Minnesota. A moderate depression, central over southern Iowa will likely cause snow in this section this afternoon and tonight with falling temperature. Friday will be generally fair and much colder.

PENNSYLVANIA GIRL HELPS DAD HE MAY GET A CABINET JOB

That William B. Wilson, representative from Pennsylvania, is being mentioned prominently for the post of secretary of labor in the cabinet of President Wilson—should congress pass the pending measure providing for such a post—is due much to the talent and activity of his chief political lieutenant, Miss Agnes H. Wilson, his daughter. She has been associated with her father's affairs since she was 16, when she quit school to become his private secretary. When her father went to Washington six years ago as representative she went with him. Two years ago he was made chairman of the committee on labor in the lower house and appointed his daughter secretary of the committee.

ONE TERM FIGHT OPENS IN SENATE

Martine of New Jersey Declares Governor Wilson Is in Favor of Proposed Change

BRISTOW WOULD ADD THE RECALL

Declares Six-year Term Is Too Long if People Have No Chance to Eject Poor Official

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—That Governor Wilson has repeatedly declared his adherence to the principle of one term for the president of the United States and that he may be relied upon to live up to this principle, was declared by Senator Martine of New Jersey, one of the president-elect's advisers and friends on the floor of the senate this afternoon.

Senator Dixon, the progressive party's national chairman, asked whether Wilson had declared himself for one term before or after his nomination.

"I believe it was before the nomination," said Senator Martine. "He has so declared himself in a public way."

"Has he made any public declaration he will not again be a candidate?" asked Senator Dixon.

"Not in those words," said Martine, "but he has declared on two or three occasions that he believed in the wisdom of the plan."

Senator Martine pointed out the one term plan in the Baltimore platform and said Wilson had been in harmony with it.

"I cannot see that limiting the president to one term will alter the patronage of the office. You will not get rid of the effect of patronage until you change human nature," said Senator Lodge, opposing the amendment.

"No constitutional provision will prevent the people from accepting a dictator or permanent president, once they reach that determination," Lodge insisted.

Senator Dixon, the bull moose leader, introduced an amendment that the six year plan should not apply to president-elect Wilson.

Bristow argued vigorously for the recall of presidents. He declared that "for the past two years the people's will, as expressed in the congressional elections, had been thwarted by the president, and he urged that there be some change in the constitution whereby the power of a president to suspend the power of the people might be stopped."

The pending six year amendment will empower a president to defy the people for four years after they may have declared themselves against him at a congressional election," he said, enlarging on the fact that the people had an opportunity two years after a president was elected to express their will at the polls in balloting for congressmen.

Senator Bristow's amendment to the Works single term six-year presidential resolution was defeated by the senate ten to fifty-eight.

ALLIES TERMINATE PEACE ARMISTICE

Serve Notice on Turkey that War Will Be Resumed in Four Days

PORTER'S OFFERS NOT ENOUGH

Willing to Concede Only a Part of Adrianople and Some Aegean Islands

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 30.—War will be resumed at the expiration of four days after 7 p. m., was the formal notice this afternoon served on the porte by the Balkan allies.

Envoys of Bulgaria, Greece, Serbia and Montenegro called on the foreign minister and notified him that the alliance would terminate the armistice at 7 o'clock. By the terms of the protocol of Baghitch, four days' notice must be given by either side wishing to resume some hostilities. The Balkan representatives said they would respect that agreement.

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Peace in the Balkans was believed to be in sight today when Turkey conceded her willingness to give up a part of Adrianople to the allies. The Balkan peace delegates still in London were unanimous in declaring that they could not accept the proposals made by Turkey in her reply to the powers, but Dr. Daneff said he believed the allies would be willing to reopen negotiations.

Want Islands. He declared, though, that the allies were pledged to Greece to insist on the absolute surrender of the Aegean islands.

Eleutherios Venizelos, the Greek premier and peace plenipotentiary, commenting on Turkey's note, said: "My information is that the porte proposes to leave to the great powers the disposition of all the Aegean islands, except those nearest to the Turkish coast, which Turkey refused to cede. This, if correct, is unsatisfactory."

Turkish Troops Revolt. Dispatches today from Constanza confirmed the persistent reports of revolution among the Turkish troops at Chatalia. Fifty officers and men killed and 200 wounded were the reported casualties. Adherents of Kiamil Pasha, determined to avenge the Enver Bey murder of Nazim Pasha, were fighting the small part of the army sympathizing with the Young Turks' cabinet.

Reply to Powers. CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 30.—The formal reply of Turkey to the joint note of the great powers was presented to the foreign ambassadors here today. The porte proposes to give up to the allies part of Adrianople, Turkey to retain that portion of the town known as the Holy City, where the moslem shrines are situated.

The note also declines to surrender the Aegean islands, but proposes that the status and government of the islands be left to the powers. It also is suggested that the disposition of the 23,000 square miles of conquered territory in European Turkey be left to the powers.

Reply is Ultimatum. VIENNA, Jan. 30.—A special dispatch from Constantinople today said that the Young Turks had issued a statement to the effect that Turkey would never consent to give up the moslem shrines of Adrianople and the Aegean islands commanding the Turkish coast. This was taken to mean that the Ottoman reply today to the joint note of the great powers was in the nature of an ultimatum, and no further concessions could be expected.

PARIS, Jan. 30.—The navy department this afternoon ordered two cruisers to proceed at once to Constantinople to reinforce the French naval vessels already in Turkish waters.

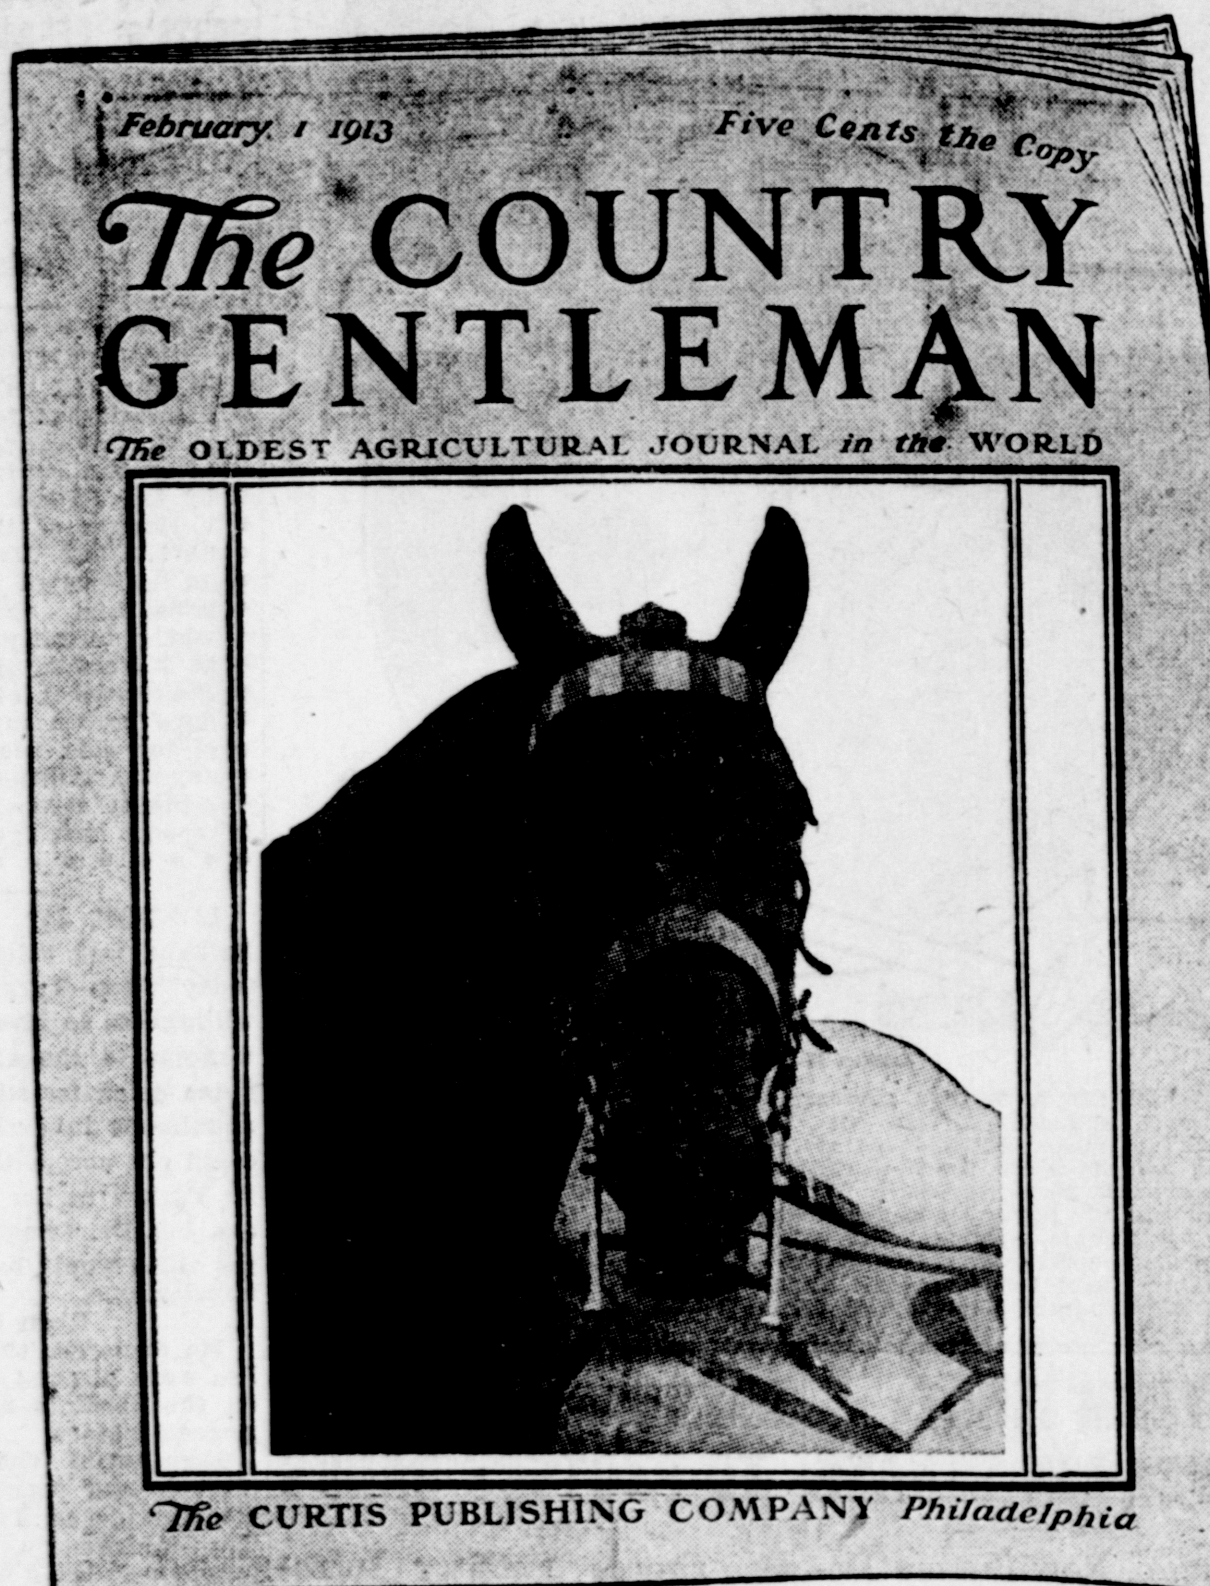

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 30.—It was semi-officially stated that the porte later withdrew the Turkish reply to the powers, for alterations. The messenger from Mahmud Sheftek Pasha, grand vizier, was seen to linger on the threshold of the Austrian embassy and it was said that he was ordered to take back the note after he had placed it in the hands of the ambassadors.

MANY CHILDREN ABNORMAL

WINONA, Minn., Jan. 30.—An examination of more than 5,000 children in all parts of the state has revealed that 20 per cent suffer from frequent headaches, 14 per cent from earache, four per cent from discharging ears, eight per cent from adenoids, 75 per cent from defective teeth, 25 per cent from poor eyesight, any many at various percentages from different other unclassified ailments.

This statement was made by Dr. Ernest B. Hoag, special director of school hygiene in the employ of the state board of health.

YOU HAD BETTER BURN YOUR MONEY

AND SAVE YOUR ENERGY,
says DR. CYRIL G. HOPKINS, soil expert at the Illinois Experiment Station, than continue farming on the plan of taking from and not putting back into the soil those things which are absolutely essential to permanent, successful agriculture.

And he proves this statement. But he does more. After showing with irrefutable facts just why the prevailing American method of farming is ruinous, he demonstrates how you can make your farm yield from 30 to 40 more bushels per acre.

It's all in a series of articles entitled

The Farm That Won't Wear Out

Now appearing in THE COUNTRY

This Week's Issue On Sale Today

The Homesteader's Gamble is another big feature of this week's issue. It is by W. J. Harsha, a Colorado homesteader, and it tells the whole homesteading proposition from A to Z. Mr. Harsha has been through the mill and he says that a man who stakes a homestead and hasn't the two G's—gumption and grit—had better quit. He says further that a homesteader will stand a better chance of succeeding if he has $1000 in cash.

And, Besides All These Features,

The Western Farmer and His Help, a solution of the farm labor problem,

FUNKIE OBJECTS TO CITY REGULATION

Asks Committee to Exclude Quarry Property in Extension of City Limits

HE FEARS BLASTING ORDINANCE

Hixon Park Donors to Be Consulted Before
Final Action Is Taken

Declaring that at some future
time the common council may adopt an ordinance prohibiting blasting within the city limits and that such an ordinance would seriously hamper their business, William F. Funke, president of the La Crosse Stone company, appeared before the committees on ordinance, judiciary and parks and park commissioners in the mayor's office last night in an attempt to exclude seven acres of the stone company's land from the tract which is to be incorporated in the city limits with the Hixon park donation. The ordinance, which went to its second reading at the last meeting of the council and was under consideration at the committee meeting last night, provides that all of the land donated by the Hixon family, the Campbell Land company and the Arenz stone quarries be annexed to the city. The seven acres belonging to the stone company is included
by the straight line drawn east from the end of Main street and is located on top of Granddad bluff. Quarry work is now being done on part of this seven acres.

No Objection at Present
"There is no particular objection to the including of our property in the city limits under present conditions," said Mr. Funke, "but it is possible that an ordinance prohibiting blasting in the city limits may be passed by the council in the future. If such an ordinance were passed it would stop our work in part of our quarries. I can see no reason for including this land in the city limits."

Park Commissioner E. L. Colman declared that city regulation of the blasting may be necessary in the future to protect persons who use the driveway on the top of the bluff
which is gradually coming into general use because of the beautiful view to be had from the top of the bluff. Mr. Colman said that when the big park becomes one of the pleasure grounds of the city, this driveway
will undoubtedly become much traveled and the closeness of the quarries may be dangerous unless blasting is confined to certain hours when the road is not in use.

"It seems to me," he said, "this furnishes a good reason for including that part of the quarries in the city
limits."

To Consult Donors of Land Alderman Bert Smith raised the question as to whether the Hixon family had been consulted in regard to the including of the quarry property in the annexation and said that courtesy demanded that the committee learn their attitude before taking definite action. Mr. Smith's view was corroborated by the other members of the committee and the question was referred to the park commission, who will take it up with the donors of the park land. Another meeting of the committee will be held before the next regular meeting of the council February 14.

RECEIVED HIGHEST AWARDS

to the truth of the copybook adage that honesty is the best policy.

It was Emily's bill. It had been given her by Henry Carpenter of 36
West 59th street, New York city.

When Carpenter was in Chicago
several weeks ago he dropped a diamond pin valued at $700. Police could not locate it and Carpenter went back to New York. Emily saw it glittering in the gutter several days later and took it to the police headquarters. Carpenter came on and identified it. Therefore the bill and Emily's joy.

Daddy's Bedtime

What Brought
Story— Pussy Down
The Tree

Couldn't Coax the Cat Down.

A STRANGE dog had chased Tabby up a tree that morning, and Jack and Evelyn were telling daddy about it.
"And we had a dreadful time coaxing poor Tabby down," they explained.

Daddy smiled. "Well, there are ways and ways of getting pussy cats down out of trees. Two ladies who live near a friend of mine have a lovely long haired cat that is tame as a tame can be. It sleeps on a silk cushion and eats off a handsome china plate.

"This pussy's name is Fatima, but the ladies' nephew, who sometimes comes to see them, will call the pussy Fatty, and the young ladies do not like it.
"This nephew comes to call on the ladies only once in a great while. They do not invite him to visit them often because Fatima does not like him. He is too rough and noisy to please the spoiled pussy.

"One day not long ago the nephew came to see his aunts. He said he had been sent on an errand to a shop in the neighborhood, so he thought he would stop and have luncheon with them.

"The ladies welcomed him kindly. While they were talking they heard the loud barking of a dog outside. 'Oh, that's only Gyp,' the nephew explained. 'I brought him with me. He's my new dog.'

"Dog?" The ladies rushed to the door in a fright. Fatima had been enjoying her morning stroll on the lawn before the boy came in.

"When they opened the door they saw an awful sight. Fatima was up a tree, and the new dog, a little fox terrier, was barking down below.

"The nephew called off his dog. Gyp was shut up in the cellar while the ladies hurriedly gave their nephew his lunch.

"When he had gone they went out to the tree. Fatima was still meowing among its branches. None of their coaxing would bring her down.

"She'll come down when she gets hungry," a neighbor suggested.

"The ladies looked shocked. They had no idea of leaving their dear Fatima up in an uncomfortable tree in the cold weather until hunger should bring her down.

"What the neighbors said, though, made them think of something.
"Fatima loves fried bacon and liver better than anything else," said one sister to the other.

"Yes, was the answer. 'And I'm going to fry some right down here at the foot of the tree and see if she won't come down when she smells it.'

"Well, they brought out a little table and their chafing dish and began to fry the liver and bacon. Fatima meowed anxiously for a few minutes. Then she came running down the tree as spry as a squirrel to get a bit of bacon."

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Agricultural Co-operation (Cont.)
CO-OPERATIVE LAND COLONIES
The state board of public affairs has under consideration a plan for the settlement of wild lands by a cooperative colony. This plan con-emplates the purchase of land by an association at wholesale prices, its sale

to individual members of the association at current retail prices and the conversion of the profits accru-ing therefrom into a community fund to be controlled and used by the members of the colony for the establishment of co-operative creameries, cheese factories and warehouses, the construction of roads and the purchase of farm machinery too expensive to be bought and owned by individuals. As worked out by its author, this plan involves the supervision of the work of the association and the audit of their accounts by some responsible state agency. While this idea is new, I bespeak for it your careful consideration to the end that the necessary steps may be taken to provide the state supervision and auditing requested in the event

that it should mature into a practical and feasible project.

THE COST OF LIVING

Possibly the most important, certainly the most difficult, subject submitted by the last legislature to the board of public affairs for its consideration was the cost of living. A number of the questions already discussed bear more or less directly upon it and the proper solution of them will serve to solve it also. But this subject was also taken up separately by the board. Under its direction an exhaustive investigation of the marketing of cheese was made by Professor Taylor of the college of agriculture. The results of his inquiries are now being printed in the form of a pamphlet and will soon be ready for distribution. He has attempted to trace this particular product from the farmer's pasture in Wisconsin to the dinner tables of the business man in New York city, the day laborer
in Texas, and the miner in Montana, noting each increment of price
as it was added. The facts disclosed by this inquiry are extremely interesting and invite your serious consideration. Similar investigations of the marketing of potatoes and butter are being made.

Approaching the problem from an opposite direction an investigation of municipal markets and co-operative stores was made. The results of these studies have been printed in pamphlet form and are now being distributed.

Price Discrimination

Equality of opportunity in industry and trade is a sound American ideal; but like all ideals it is not easily attained. Here and elsewhere in recent years unfair methods have been systematically employed by powerful organization of capital to break down the business of small dealers. A favorite practice is to sell commodities below cost in localities where the market is shared with others, for the purpose of driving them out, and at the same time recoup the loss by putting up the price of the same goods in other localities where there is no competition. In buying precisely the same object is attained by reversing the process. Commercial war of this sort is indefensible. Small business concerns whether they be owned by individuals of limited means or by cooperative societies should be protected against tactics of this sort; for it must be perfectly clear to all that the result of such procedure if not checked is to stifle competition. Business conducted upon a moderate scale cannot long survive such unslights; and when it has been driven from the field the public in turn will become the ready prey of monopolies.

Complaints of this sort of overbid-ding and underselling, resorted to
for the purpose of destroying the business of competitors, have come to me from farmers' warehouses, cooperative elevators and cheese factories, and livestock shippers' associations. Other states, including Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts,
North Carolina, North Dakota, South
Dakota, Oklahoma and South Carolina, by the passage of so-called "anti price discrimination" statutes have apparently solved this problem within respective borders. I recommend the enactment of a law at this session that will effectively put an end to all such practices in Wisconsin.

CLEANS YOUR LIVER AND BOWELS WITH DELICIOUS "SYRUP OF FIGS"

Removes the sour bile, gases and clogged-up waste
without gripe or nausea. No headache, indigestion, constipation, biliousness or coated tongue.

Foul breath, coated tongue, dull,
throbbing headache, stomach sour
and full of gases, indigestion, biliousness and a sallow complexion, mean that your thirty feet of bowels are clogged with waste matter; that these drainage organs of the body are obstructed; liver stagnant and stomach full of poisonous gases, sour bile and undigested, fermenting food not properly carried off.

Most of our ills are caused by constipated bowels. We all need a laxative some times; nobody can doubt that. The only question is, Which one is the best? and that isn't a question
any more. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of lucious figs, senna
and aromatics must act in a harmless, gentle and natural way. Syrup of Figs can be constantly used without injury. Its action is the action of fruit—of eating coarse food—of taking exercise. It is a true and effective liver and bowel cleanser and regulator.

Most folks dread physic—they shrink from the taste and after effects. Syrup of Figs is delicious, and, besides, you don't realize you
have taken anything until morning, when all the clogged up waste of the system is getty but thoroughly moved on and out of the bowels without gripping or weakness.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna." This is the old reliable and only genuine. Refuse, with contempt, any other Fig Syrup recommended as good. They are imitations meant to deceive you. Read the label carefuly and look for the name California
Fig Syrup company.—Advertisement.

KNOWS CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION ONLY

A fair illustration of the value of political dope upon the affairs of one state by a writer in another state who is familiar only in a general way with the politics of the first is given in a Washington dispatch recently published in a Chicago paper.

In this instance the dope was that Irvine I. Lenroot of Superior, will be Senator La Follette's choice for United States senator to succeed Isaac Stephenson, and that Congressman Cooper is La Follette's second choice.

No doubt either of the congressmen mentioned would be acceptable to Senator La Follette, but it must be remembered that the work cut out for the La Follette candidate is to beat Francis E. McGovern for the office. That is a man's work, and in addition to being right and capable, the aspirant must have strength. Mr. Lenroot, once defeated in a bitter state fight in which he made many enemies, might find a contest with McGovern an uphill affair, especially as many strong La Follette men disapprove of his disagreement with a Follette in the presidential campaign. Mr. Cooper has never attained the status of a state figure, and doubt if he could win a Washington dispatch has mentioned neither of the two men who are probably uppermost in the mind of La Follette in connection with the senatorial campaign.

COLLIER'S "CALLED" BY "THE PUBLIC"

Louis F. Post, publisher of The Public, takes Collier's Weekly to task for its urgent suggestion to President-elect Wilson that he retain Walter L. Fisher in the portfolio of the interior "in spite of the fact that he is a republican."

Of course, Collier's idea is that Mr. Fisher is an excellent official and that this is a case in which a non-partisan cabinet appointment would be for the good of the service. Nor can Collier's sincerity be questioned, for that magazine was probably the most powerful individual instrument in the fight which drove Richard A. Ballinger from the office of secretary of the interior.

But Collier's foot slipped, as it were, when it attempted to carry Mr. Fisher's load, for it described the department of the interior as having been crippled with fraud for thirty years, "the bottom tiers of its clerks and petty officials being honeycombed with disloyalty to the people's interests."

Mr. Fisher has been in office for some time, and if the department is still "honeycombed with disloyalty to the people's interests" the soundness of his general policy will hardly offset that fact. Mr. Post asks:

"Shall President Wilson invite into his official family, into his cabinet as the head of this rotten department, an unrepentant member of that party which is responsible for the rottenness?"

Mr. Post goes further, pointing out what he believes to be the double inconsistency of Mr. Wilson being asked to appoint to the office "the identical republican whom President Taft chose in place of Ballinger after making extraordinary and desperate efforts to retain Ballinger."

LA FOLLETTE HAS NEVER COMPROMISED

In a recent editorial the Milwaukee Journal urges Senator La Follette to come with all his influence to the support of Woodrow Wilson during the coming administration.

Senator La Follette has not said unconditionally that he will do so. There is this difference between The Journal and Senator La Follette: The Journal assumes the progressiveness of Woodrow Wilson; Senator La Follette, who has already been the victim of insincere progressive protestations from a president-elect, takes nothing for granted.

Senator La Follette says in the most positive terms that if Mr. Wilson honestly attempts the restoration of representative government he (the senator) will aid him in every possible way; the senator adds that if the practices of Mr. Wilson do not harmonize with his progressive preachments the new president will feel the first of the progressive republican coterie in congress.

Perhaps—and, frankly, we doubt it—The Journal itself is just a mite timid about what Mr. Wilson will do. We have re-read several times this portion of its editorial:

"Mr. La Follette can support Wilson measures although they are not all that he would like or precisely what he would seek. It is after all a world of compromise."

All that Senator La Follette has accomplished he has achieved by a rigid refusal to compromise. That has been the difference between him and Roosevelt; it has been Colonel Roosevelt's weakness that he would always compromise.

We cannot say that Senator La Follette will not support Wilson measures that compromise his own belief. However, we are sure of one thing, that any compromise he makes will have to be half a good and no evil—it cannot be half good and half bad.

A Cabinet Ready Made
Oh, listen here, dear Woodrow, You should not fume or fret Concerning the appointment Of your new cabinet. Of course, they are all anxious To do the thing for you— To pick out your assistants, And see the matter through. But there's no use to worry. We know where you can find A cabinet that's ready made And willing to be signed. Just take this tip, friend Woodrow, And you need fret no more; Accept this hunch and take the bunch Down at our grun-cry store.

There's Uncle Ezra Harkins, Who knows each nation's fate; Write him a note and get him for Secretary of state. Hod Peters is a fighter, And knows what fightin's for; You could get him, we know, for your secretary of war; The agriculture sinecure, Should go to Angus Jones, Who poses as an expert, but Has mortgaged all he owns. The naval job should be a snap For Uncle Abner Hyfes, He knows a lot about the boats, He's crossed the lake three times.

The treasury department Should go to Henry Swang; He kin count money mighty fast; He works down in our bank, And he kin tell a counterfeit, By gosh, or bogus bill, And kin detect a lead ten cent piece When it drops in the till. Attorney general's a cinch, Give that to old Squire Lunk; He's never lost a line fence suit, And knows a nunc pro tunc. Interior department? Old Doctor Hanks confides. He kin tell every organ We've got in our insides.

Those fellers are experts That hang around the store, They'll all take the positions, So you need fret no more.

No Wonder
"I've found a new use of those phonograph records you bought last week and which cost such a lot of money," said his wife, according to the San Francisco Chronicle. "How clever you are," he exclaimed, "what is your latest?" "In the first place," she began, "I hold a skein of wool over my arm, tie one end of the wool on a reel, place the reel on the gramophone pin and then start the machine. The wool is wound up in no time. The fond husband gasped in admiration.

"But that is not all," she continued. "Tomorrow I shall place a little bathbrick on one end of the records, start the gramophone and so clean the knives."

He is still gasping.

From the Minister Himself

A young American journalist had recently come over from the states was taken on the staff of a big London newspaper. One day he dashed into the editor's room and pushed a few slips of "copy" under his nose. The startled editor glanced through the report, and was even more startled. It contained a vivacious account of a quarrel between the king and the prime minister. "Can you vouch for this?" asked the editor eagerly.

"You bet I can!" was the confident reply. "How did you find it out?" the editor wanted to know. "Oh, you needn't be afraid; it's all right. I know the prime minister had gone to Buckingham Palace, and I was there."

so I waited outside and saw him come out to his motor car. I thought he looked worried, so I got as near as I could and I heard him say the king was angry."

"But to whom did he say it? To the chauffeur?" asked the editor. "Yes, I suppose he was an old family retainer—a sort of confidential servant. Anyway, he said it plain enough. The editor looked puzzled. "Yes, but what did the prime minister say? Did he say in so many words that the king was angry?" "No, not exactly," the American admitted. He Was Justly Suspicious

A big mass meeting was being held in Blinville, says Judge. The well-groomed and slick-looking individual who was trying to separate the town from its money arose to make a few remarks. "Fellow-citizens," he opened up, "appropos—"

"Just a minute mister," said a small sandy-whiskered man. A look of annoyance crossed the speaker's face. "What can I do for you?" he asked.

"I have here a pocket edition of Webster's Dictionary, and I want to look up that word 'appropos.' I don't intend to sit here and let some oily-tongued stranger slip one over on you," replied the sandy-whiskered man.

"You are a little suspicious, I see," said the speaker. "Now, that word to which you refer means—" "Never mind what it means," enjoined the little man. "I'm looking it up. I let a smooth talker sell me a unicycle one time. He said it was the last word in conveyances, and when I paid the freight on it from Chicago, I found I had purchased a wheelbarrow."

THE SOCIETY OF CAPTAIN KETTLE

ON HER BIRTHDAY

It was a bitter pill to have a homeward-bound ship against him, Grace McMarion Lyons, the Hanson. All

The Berber chief saw the point and laughed. "As commander of your escort I'll take it. My people have been mercenary soldiers off and on for some three thousand years and more, and although this will be my first bit of hired service, there is no reason why I should kick at the tribal custom. The only thing left to settle is, I think, the pay. We mercenaries guarantee fidelity, of course, as long as the pay suits us, and is forthcoming regularly. But when that stops, why then we hold ourselves free to chop round and serve under another flag."

"Pay?" repeated Captain Kettle, and pulled vexedly at his red torpedo beard. "Why not? You serve Sir George for pay yourself, I suppose?" "I do. But you! you quite took me in with your tales of gold-dust and the rest of it. I never dreamt you were out for your ten or fourteen pounds a month."

Again the kaid laughed. "Pardon me, but your ideas are so eminently British. You think that hard cash is the cure and pay for everything. Why, throughout all my people's soldiering through all the centuries, I never heard they served for money. Some of them—the slingers especially—like the men of the Balearic Islands, took wine and women for their pay; others asked for ornaments for their friends at home, and some went as mercenaries for the sheer sport of the thing. But for myself—the blue eyes looked keenly—"would it surprise you to hear that I am like an Islander of the Balearics?"

"Yes," said Kettle with a happy flash of memory. "They fought for a fee of women and wine, but also they fought naked. Now you are clothed; you've been to college at Cambridge, and you aren't going to bargain like a naked savage."

"Touche," said the kaid, throwing up a slim finger to his forehead. "And, curse your impudence, there's my Winchester to beat time with. Here, make this earthquake of a camel heave to, and let's taste God's air again from the top of horses. I'm choked in this blanket-topped hansom. Now you're remembered you're a white man, the thing is all simple, and why you couldn't have done it before, and saved me all this bother and language, beats me."

"A man must be a fool sometimes, I suppose," said the kaid shortly, "and the other was my day. Take this black horse; he's my own, and you'll like him. I'll ride that bay. If it comes to a charge, I need hardly say, don't go at it hell for leather. We've got to keep back to camel's pace. Ah, good morning, Chesterman. Captain Kettle and I have both come to the conclusion that we've been behaving like a pair of idiots, and so we've arranged to side level through what's ahead. I'm sure you'll be delighted to join, and give your old yeomanry tricks a chance."

"Hum," said Sir George, who was feeling sore. "I'll ride ahead if you like," said the saint, "and you can shoot me in the back if I still look doubtful."

The big man shrugged the shoulder inside his loose untidy coat. "If I trust a man at all, I trust him right through. If the skipper says you're all right, that'll do for me. What's that ahead? A cavalry flank-party, by jove!"

The kaid gave a sharp order, and the escort cantered up and formed round the camels. There were twenty-five of them, all told, so that the dour, with the camel drivers and British, numbered in all some five and thirty souls.

"Why are they wearing respirators?" "Twaraks," said the kaid shortly. "By your leave I'll just try an experiment." He put thin fingers between his bearded lips and blew a high-pitched whistle. It squealed out into the night, two long blasts and a short, all on the same note; and then after a pause he blew two

More Truth Than Poetry

"It was a cough That carried him off; It was a coffin They carried him off in."

The action of the Board of Health, urging citizens to take precautions against the prevailing coughs and colds, brings to mind the old jingle. Probably most of the deaths in this country today are the result of diseases which had their origin in neglected coughs.

There is no better prescription for giving immediate relief to acute coughs and speedily breaking up the most severe colds than that of a famous throat specialist who always advises his patients to shake together two ounces of glycerine, eight ounces of whiskey and half an ounce of Virgin Oil of Pine, and to take a teaspoonful of this simple remedy every four hours.

short blasts and a long, half a tone lower.

The squadron leader of the Twaraks threw up a long-barreled gun, and his men halted. The saint wheeled his bay clear of the others, so that he was a plain mark to see, or be shot at. The squadron leader of the black troop gazed a moment, acknowledged the other with a gun-wave, then wheeled his horse and galloped back into the shadows by the way he had come, with his horsemen thudding at his heels.

"Friends of yours?" asked Captain Kettle. "Nothing of the sort. Didn't I tell you he was a masked Twarack? He's a pirate of the desert out yonder to the south and east, and I guess he'd come in here to raid the raiders who appear to be raiding your steamer. Let's hope he'll continue to do it."

"You seemed to know his helm signals?" "Precisely. And may I suggest, my good sir, that you don't know all the international codes? You Europeans are in the very infancy of long distance signaling. And even when we others in Africa show you how to do the trick, you don't seem able to learn. By jove! look out! Here's the real thing!"

A howling mob in white billowy draperies poured out from behind a shoulder of the sand-hills, and the night kindled and roared with the discharge of their guns. But the range was too far for the inaccurate muzzle-loaders to be effective, and barring a camel slightly hit (it was not that which carried the ladies), no damage was done.

The damaged camel was allowed to drop behind, and the others were flogged and dagger-pricked into something nearly approaching speed. The enemy were hard at work reloading; but charging and priming a musket of true Moroccan build is a work of art and time, and before more than a dozen of the weapons could be hurriedly squibbed off against them, Captain Kettle, the saint, and Sir George Chesterman, riding abreast, smashed down into the middle of the enemy. Each did terrible work with his own weapon. Sir George had borrowed a mace (that might well have been carried in the Co. from one of the escort, and and felt, to use his own words, expression like a butcher's. The saint, with reins loose, steering the bay with his used both hands to the Winchester and did not miss a shot, he opened fire thirty yards from the line.

Railroad Legislation Proposed in Legislature Would Cut on Collection on Trains

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—If a bill introduced by Senator Teasdale of Sparta yesterday becomes a law, the railroad companies operating in Wisconsin will no longer be permitted to charge ten cents in cases where passengers have failed to purchase a ticket at the ticket window. The bill provides that if a passenger is too busy to purchase a ticket or finds that the crowd in front of the window is so great that he may miss his train if he waits to secure a ticket, that the railroad company shall be compelled to carry the passenger without additional charge.

Railway companies in Wisconsin will be required to post the exact time of arrival of trains and to report any additional information of the delay of that schedule immediately, according to a bill presented by Senator Teasdale yesterday.

The broadening of the general scope of the railroad commission law involving the settlement of discriminatory charges, correctness of weights, rates and charges and refunds is provided in a bill introduced by Assemblyman Nye.

BREAKS A COLD
IN A FEW HOURS

First dose of Pape's Cold Compound relieves all gripe misery—Contains no Quinine

After the very first dose of Pape's Cold Compound you distinctly feel the cold breaking and all the disagreeable gripe symptoms leaving. It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will cure Gripe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly ends the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Take this wonderful Compound with the knowledge that there is nothing else in the world which will cure your cold or end Gripe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after effects as a 25 cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist can supply—it contains no quinine—be sure you get what you ask for—accept no substitute—belongs in every home. Tastes nice—acts gently.—Advertisement.

TAKES A BARRIER

Miss Dasha Allen and Her Favorite Steed.

The balmy, spring-like weather which is being enjoyed at the national capital has been the means of bringing out to the parks and drives the equestriennes of Washington society. Seldom has the District of Columbia enjoyed such an open season, and everyone able to do so is taking advantage of it. One of the most daring equestriennes seen about the capital is Miss Dasha Allen, daughter of Major Henry T. Allen, U. S. A. The picture shows her taking her mount over a rather dangerous barrier in Rock Creek Park, the well-known rendezvous near Washington.

LOOKS FOR CAT
DISCOVERS FIRE

North Side Woman Misses "Tabby" and Finds Barn Is in Flames

Neighbors of Mrs. Margaret Israelson, 1429 Logan street, are in doubt whether sparks from a Burlington engine, or hoboes, who had been seen in the neighborhood, started the fire which destroyed her barn last night at 12:40.

Mrs. Israelson, who lives alone, had been in the habit of seeing that her cat was in the house, before she locked the doors, preparatory to retiring. About 12:30 she says she missed the cat and went outside to look for it, discovering that her barn was afire.

Henry Halden, a neighbor, noticed the fire at the same time, and telephoned the fire department. Being confused, he told the fire department that the fire was at Loomis and St. Paul streets. Fire departments numbers 2 and 4 were called out, and as they were given the wrong directions, did not find the fire for a few minutes, which gave the fire time to spread to the house.

Fire department number 4 put out the flames in the barn, which was an old structure, and was demolished. The roof which was built in three layers caught fire and had to torn apart. The loss to the house and barn was estimated at about $75.

Mrs. Dick Kroeger fractured her hip Monday morning, the result of a fall on the ice. She was going out of the house of John Meyer for a pail of water. Dr. Wakefield was summoned to attend her and she was soon able to be carried home on a stretcher.

Miss Lillie Bahnhub has been operated upon for appendicitis at the Lutheran hospital in La Crosse.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hagen, a girl, Jan. 21.

The first of the union services was held in the Congregational church on Sunday, Jan. 26. Rev. S. L. McKee preached an excellent sermon, taking for his text 1 Kings, 7-18. He compared life to the building of the pillars of King Solomon's temple, not to be contented with just living, but to build on such a firm foundation that as we add inch by inch, to that which has gone before we will be ready to receive the ornamentation of the pomgranate and the lilies at the end of a life rightly lived. The twenty voices in the choir were assisted by an orchestra of six pieces.

ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in La Crosse

Do the right thing at the right time.

Act quickly in time of danger. In time of kidney danger Doan's Kidney Pills are most effective.

Plenty of evidence of their worth. G. P. Erbst, 1006 S. Fourth St., La Crosse, Wis., says: "I suffered a great deal from kidney complaint. If I stood in one position long my back became very lame and when I moved, sharp twinges darted throughout my body. There was a steady, dull ache in my loins and this made it difficult for me to stoop. After trying several remedies, and finding no relief, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Erhart's drug store. They rid me of my trouble, toning up my entire system. I am pleased to again endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. I still use this remedy occasionally and it keeps my kidneys in good working order."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

DRUGGIST BEYSCHLAG

SAYS THE SALE OF Gray's Yerba Santa Cough Cure in the past two weeks was very great.

THIS REMARKABLE remedy is gaining in popularity each season, because who once tries it, wants no other cough remedy.

I HAVE ALL THE popular cough remedies in the market, and yet I sell a great deal more of the Gray's Yerba Santa Cough Cure, than of all the rest put together.

IF TROUBLED WITH a cough or cold, it will pay you to try a 50c or $1.00 bottle of it, and it will prove a splendid investment.

Respectfully yours,

CHAS. BEYSCHLAG.

GET BUSY, SLEUTHS;
HERE'S A MYSTERY

This young lady is reputed to be a member of a well-known Washington family and by reason of parental objection refuses to allow her identity to become known. Her folks don't want her to take part in the great suffrage demonstration at the national capital on March 3. She will do so, but in order that no one may know that she is in the procession she will ride heavily veiled. Some of the suffrage leaders have said that she is closely related to two well-known members of congress, but without that admission they will say nothing.

THERE ARE ALWAYS MANY IMITATIONS

Country Journals Make Attempt to Distribute Unreliable Dictionaries.

Few people realize the dangers lurking in substitutes and counterfeits. We have a Federal law that protects us from the dangers of impure foods. The government is ever vigilant in guarding us against spurious coins and currency. But we are left to our own resources in the matter of choosing our apparel, our literature and our means of learning, and many times are we deceived by having foisted upon us something of this character that is detrimental to our physical growth and development.

The only protection we have is to guard against substitutes and imitations. It stands us in hand to be aware of counterfeits of any and all kinds.

As a means of encouraging education, The Tribune presents the New Modern English Illustrated Dictionary.

As soon as the success of this great distribution was assured cheap imitations of the New Dictionary were offered to the public at seemingly low prices. But it must be remembered that counterfeits are costly at any price. Some unscrupulous publishers have taken their old dictionary that is out of date, changed the title pages, pasted in a few pictures and other irrelevant matter, and now offer these to the public, with the claim that they are of late compilation, because this year's date is on the title page. As a matter of fact, they are printed from old plates that served their usefulness years ago, and as our language is ever changing they are utterly unreliable and useless.

It is said that imitation is the sincerest flattery. This newspaper's successful educational campaign is doubtless envied by those who wish they might have thought of such a plan first. But there is only one New Modern English Illustrated Dictionary and it is presented by The Tribune. There is only one way to get it, which is expressed on the dictionary coupon.

HEATH-MYERS WEDDING

Miss Katherine Heath and Mr. Frank Myers of Holmen were married at the St. John's Catholic church at 8:15 Wednesday morning. The bride and bridegroom were attended by Mr. and Mrs. James Dorothy. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of blue messaline and carried the bride's roses, while the bridesmaid's gown was blue voile. She also carried roses. After the wedding ceremony the bridal party returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boyle, 2122 George street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The dining room was beautifully decorated in roses and smilax while a large vase of roses adorned the bride's table and a large bow of blue chiffon on the bride's chair pointed out her place at the table.

After the wedding breakfast the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. William Doherty at Holmen, Wis., where a reception was held.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers will leave soon for their future home in Minnesota.

KEROSENE ON FIRE
TO CAUSE DEATH
MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 30.—A living torch, Mrs. J. H. Michelson, 25 years old, 11 Willow street, ran from the basement to the kitchen yesterday morning, tore all garments from her body, and was rolling on the floor, screaming in agony, when found by neighbors. She will die. The accident is said to have followed the use of kerosene to rekindle a dying furnace fire.

CHARGES POLICE PLOT
LEADER OF GARMENT WORKERS' STRIKE SAY AUTHORITIES ARE IN LEAGUE WITH MANUFACTURERS
NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—That the police are in a conspiracy with the private "guards" hired by the clothing makers to persecute the girl strikers, was the charge made today by union leaders and organizers of the garment workers' strike, following the wholesale arrests during the past two days of girl pickets who were doing nothing more disorderly than walking up and down on the sidewalks near the bigger factories and shops. Rough handling by the police was another accusation.

Through an agreement between the East side manufacturers' association and the workers in the wrapper and kimono industry between 5,000 and 15,000 girls were to go back to their shops within twenty-four hours. Six large white goods shops have also settled with their workers and about 1,000 strikers were to return to work in that branch of the trade. Nothing definite had been accomplished, however, to settle the differences in the strike of the 90,000 garment workers.

HOW TO CUT DOWN
LIVING EXPENSES
Any La Crosse family can make a big saving and also be much healthier by eating the deliciously appetizing "Minnesota" Spaghetti at least twice each week in place of meat.

"Minnesota" Spaghetti is four times as nutritious as beefsteak and yet costs only about one cent a dish. It contains more proteins than most foods and is therefore more strength giving and less fattening. It is fine for children—making their bodies strong and healthy. And they are very fond of its rich, nut-like flavor.

Insist on getting the genuine "Minnesota" Spaghetti, made from the VERY BEST DURUM wheat with ALL the wonderfully nourishing Gluten left in.

"BETTER THAN EVER" SAYS BOYD

All Enthusiastic Over Program to Be Presented;
Leaders' Class a Feature

The fourth annual Rube carnival will open at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock tonight when members of the athletic classes who have been working under Director Boyd during the last three months will display their talent beneath the guise of farm attire. Here and there between the ludicrous antics of the comedians, work of real acrobatic merit will be presented.

All class work has been abandoned at the "Y" during the last 2 days and the attention of the "Rubes" has been turned toward the decoration of the gymnasium which today presents a scene characteristic of the farm.

Enthusiasm is being displayed on all hands and the advance sale of seats gives assurance of a large audience. Director Boyd today declared that the committee in charge hope to break the attendance record of previous years, both tonight and tomorrow night, and that from the standpoint of a first class entertainment there is no question but that the 1913 Rube carnival will surpass all similar events of former years.

The work of the leaders' class will stand out as the strong feature of the entertainment. These young men, natural athletes of no small ability, have been going through the most rigid drill for the last month and have succeeded in preparing an act that is sure to capture the house. Every number on the program, which follows, is far above par:

Greetings of Rubes (all the rubes).
A. march; b. Indian club drill; c. hard work made easy.
Apparatus work.
Roundell dance, by rubes.
Games, "Beater Goes round."
Long horse work, "City Fellers."
Combined apparatus work.
Rube band.
Spring board leaps (all the rubes).

EMPLOYEES MUST PAY ON TRAINS

CHICAGO, Jan. 30.—Employees of the Illinois Central railroad were notified by bulletins posted in all offices and shops, that on and after February 1 no more passes over the road will be issued. The announcement has met with a storm of protest from the employees, many of whom have bought or started to buy homes in suburbs, through which the road passes, on the strength of the free transportation to and from work. Many of them can not afford to pay the suburban fares, it is said, and will be seriously embarrassed by the new rule.

PARCEL POST AIDS ELUDING GAME LAW

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—Uncle Sam's parcel post as a foil to state game laws, may be investigated by a legislative committee, according to hunters here. They declare that game shipped by parcel post has occasioned pestiferous activity on the part of the state game wardens and that the wardens have no right to "monkey" with the United States mail. The wardens' champions declare violators of game laws are taking refuge behind the parcel post.

WANTS OMAHA OPEN

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 30.—Mayor James Dahlman today sent to the state legislature at Lincoln, a bill for the abolition of the Albert Law, passed two years ago, which did away with the segregated red light district.

Dahlman is an advocate of the open town policy. In substantiation of his position he points out the fact that the Omaha police force is now unable to cope with the situation. His bill would allow all cities of over 5,000 population to deal with segregated districts according to local needs.

"CASCARETS" FOR SICK HEADACHE

Bilious, throbbing headache means Bowels are clogged
and liver stagnant

You're bilious, you have a throbbing sensation in your head, a bad taste in your mouth, your eyes burn, your skin is yellow, with dark rings under your eyes; your lips are parched. No wonder you feel ugly, mean and ill-tempered. Your system is full of bile not properly passed off, and what you need is a cleansing up inside. Don't continue being a bilious nuisance to yourself and those who love you, and don't resort to harsh physics that irritate and injure. Remember that most disorders of the stomach, liver and intestines can be quickly cured by morning with gentle, thorough Cascarets—they work while you sleep. A 10 cent box from your druggist will keep your liver and bowels clean; stomach sweet and your head clear for months. Children love to take Cascarets, because they taste good and never gripe or sicken.

JUAREZ BESIEGED BY REBELS AGAIN

Inhabitants Begin Exodus
to American Side to Get Out of Danger

EL PASO, Tex., Jan. 30.—Anticipating an attack on Juarez today by rebels under Generals Salazar and Rojas, who, during the night, moved their forces from Guadalupe to the outskirts of the city, Juarez residents at daylight began an exodus to the American side.

There is fear of serious trouble along the border should there be an attack on the city. The anti-American feeling is strong as the result of the shooting of two more rebels yesterday crossing the boundary with a dozen companions near Fabens, Tex. Later Gen. Rojas apologized to the Americans for the presence of the rebels.

Daylight revealed that Juarez was surrounded on three sides by rebel troops with other rebel commands a few miles away and hastening to the city.

During the morning, Col. Antonio Rabago, with 1,000 federal cavalry from Ciudad, Chihuahua, was reported within 20 miles of Juarez and making a forced march to relieve the city. Salazar and Rojas are expected to try to intercept him.

STATE GRAND MASTER
CRUMB TUESDAY

Clem W. Crumb of Milton, Wis., state grand master of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will be the principal speaker on the special program arranged by the three Odd Fellows lodges of La Crosse to be held at a joint meeting in the Odd Fellows' temple on South Fourth St., next Tuesday evening. After the formal program a general social session and banquet will be held to which all the visiting Odd Fellows in the city have been invited. The Odd Fellows of the western district of Wisconsin are planning a general district meeting to be held in Sparta, Feb. 24, where there will be a fine display of team drill and initiation work. A large number of La Crosse lodgemen are planning to attend the Sparta meeting. The ladies of the Rebekka lodge will serve the banquet Tuesday evening.

$7.50 HIGHEST WAGE

LAUNDRY WORKER TELLS CON-GRESSMAN SHE WORKED 12
YEARS FOR $6.50 A WEEK

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—Mrs. Grace Coulon, a laundry worker, gave members of a house committee a forceful argument for the Peter's bill, limiting hours of service for women employed in Washington.

"I am 26 years old," she said. "I went to work in a laundry when I was 13. I am a widow and have a baby boy and a mother to support. I got $1.50 a week when I began working. When I quit two weeks ago I was getting $7.50 a week. For over twelve years my highest wage was $6.50 a week. We girls had to work from 7:30 a. m. to 6 p. m."

Maud Younger of San Francisco, member of the Laundry Workers' union, told how laundry girls fainted with joy when the eight hour women worker bill was passed in California.

P. M. GELATT WILL RETIRE AT ONCE

Secretary of Gas and Electric Company Severs Connection and Will Take Vacation

The first change in the local management of the three big public utility corporations, which have recently gone into the control of outside capital, will be made Saturday when P. M. Gelatt will sever his connections with the La Crosse Gas and Electric company. Mr. Gelatt has been connected with the Gas and Electric company in the capacity of secretary since 1903.

D. G. McMillan, president and general manager of the company, will continue as manager until Kelsey-Brewer company of Grand Rapids, Mich., the new owners of the utility, complete their arrangements for the change in management. It had been expected that the Kelsey-Brewer company would send a man here to take charge January 15, but information was received from Mr. Brewer that no one would be sent until considerably later.

Mr. Gelatt will leave, in the near future, on an extended trip through the south. No announcement has been made of his business plans for the future.

Mr. Peter Valier, superintendent of the La Crosse City Railway company, declared today that he had received no announcement from the bondholders of the La Crosse Water Power company, in regard to a contemplated change in the management of the street railway company.

WILSON MUM ON EXTRA SESSION

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 30.—Nobody will know what subjects are to be taken up in the extra session of congress until after President-elect Wilson gets to Washington, if the new executive holds to the plan announced today.

After saying he expected to hold a conference this afternoon with Representative Carter Glass of Virginia, chairman of the sub-committee drafting the democratic banking and currency bills, President-elect Wilson was asked if he had decided whether to recommend that such legislation be taken up in the extra session. He said: "I have made up my mind not to announce any policy with regard to that until I get to Washington, because I am too far removed from the men in Washington with whom I shall have to confer."

TIN CAN SAVE AMERICAN TROOPS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—How tin cans, strung on barbed wire encircling the camp of the American forces on the island of Jolo, Philippines, probably saved the entire detachment from massacre at the hands of the fierce Moro tribesmen now in revolt, was revealed in official dispatches to the war department today.

In the middle of the night one of the sentries heard a tell-tale tinkle in the brush, gave the alarm, and the Americans surprised the attacking Moros. The three hundred soldiers put to disastrous rout the 1,000 tribesmen, killing several score. No Americans were killed or injured.

SAYS BISHOP HAS NOT RESIGNED

Rev. Byrne Denies Rumor
of Possible Appointment as Bishop of Superior

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., Jan. 30.—Information comes from Washington that the two principal candidates considered for the post of bishop of the Superior, Wis., diocese of the Catholic church, succeeded Bishop Schinner, resigned, are the Rev. Dr.
O'Hearn, Ph. D., and D. C. L., of the St. Francis seminary of Milwaukee, and the Very Rev. Felix A. Byrne, superior of the mission house at La Crosse. Father Byrne was for many years in charge of St. Mary's church at Stanley.

Interviewed today in regard to the above article which appeared in the Milwaukee Free Press today, Rev.
Felix A. Byrne of the La Crosse mission house, declared that there is no foundation for the story because Bishop Schinner of Superior has not resigned. Rev. Byrne said he doubted
if Bishop Schinner's resignation would be accepted even if it was tendered by the Superior prelate.

"So of course there can be nothing
to the rumors in regard to his successor," said Rev. Byrne. "The entire story looks like a figment of imagination."

TO KILL HOME RULE

HOUSE OF LORDS TO VOTE
AGAINST BILL AFTER AR-GUMENT LATE THIS EVENING

LONDON, Jan. 30.—Vote on the home rule bill, passed by the house of commons, was expected in the house of lords late tonight, when the last of the speakers will have finished their debates.

After a recess of one day, speaking on the measure was resumed
this afternoon. As it was a foregone conclusion that the lords would defeat the measure, there was not much of a crowd to hear the debate.

The government's utmost strength in the lords is less than 80, while there are 636 members, and it was voted.

The afternoon's debate on the home rule bill was opened by Lord Ashbourne a former lord chancellor for Ireland, who vigorously opposed the Asquith measure.

"This bill will not benefit Ireland, while it will mutilate parliament, destroy the unity of our postial system, divide the treasury and seriously interfere with the customs department," he said.

PROPOSE INCREASE IN STATE AID FUND

Letter Is Received from Kneen Saying State Aid Highway Fund May Be Increased $150,000

MEANS LARGER COUNTY FUND

Adoption of Amendment
Will Necessitate Increase
in County and Town Appropriations

A bill will be introduced at the present session of the state legislature for the amendment of the 1911 state highway law, providing for an increase in the state aid highway fund of $150,000.

The above statement was made by County Clerk Bert Jolivet today following the receipt of a letter from Assemblyman E. J. Kneen of Bangor in which Mr. Kneen declared that the amendment, to change the state fund from $350,000 to $500,000, will doubtlessly be adopted.

Mr. Kneen said that he had recently attended a meeting of the state highway commission at which Commissioner Hazelwood asserted that legislation increasing the appropriation for state highway aid is essential to carry out the plans of road improvement of the commission. Mr. Kneen, although asserting that an amendment will be introduced, failed to say who will draft it or when it will be presented.

The 1913 La Crosse county budget contained an appropriation of $7,950 to meet the state aid fund which was allotted to the county and an appropriation of $2,456 to make up the deficiency in the state aid fund which was that amount short of the sum required to meet the town appropriations.

In order for each of the counties to receive an amount of state aid equal to the amount of their appropriation of tax they must appropriate an aggregate amount of $500,000.

La Crosse county last year appropriated an amount largely in excess of its share of state aid and although the state aid fund will be increased nearly 43 per cent, if the amendment is adopted, it will not be necessary for La Crosse county to increase its appropriation for highways by that large a percentage. However the increase in the state fund will necessitate some increase in the county and town appropriations to prevent La Crosse from losing part of its share of state aid.

The purpose of the increase in the state aid fund is to eliminate the necessity of counties being forced to make up the deficiency of the state aid allotment in order to meet the town appropriations.

TOMAH, WIS.

Many of the students of the Tomah high school are planning to take in the Sparta-Tomah basketball game at Sparta next Friday. Sparta is Tomah's old time enemy and hard practice is going on every night. This will be the most interesting game of the season which will be shown by the enthusiasm of both sides. Tomah has won every game this season except the Viroqua game of last Friday which was a tie, 22 to 22.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (five cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three times a day.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pinex on the membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in gualic acid and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has been imitated, though never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

ARKANSAS' BEST GIRL FARMER GETS DIPLOMA FROM SECRETARY WILSON

Sec. Wilson presenting diploma to Viola Lewis.

For her ability in producing crops that paid her $53 from a tenth of an acre of land by her own efforts, Miss Viola Lewis a little Arkansas farmer girl, was presented with a diploma of merit by the secretary of agriculture, James Wilson. She went to Washington with the prize winning boy cornrowers as a representative of the girls' canning clubs. Unlike the other girl members of the canning clubs she did not devote her efforts to one crop, but raised a succession of crops of tomatoes, beans, beets and turnips. Some of her produce she sold fresh, but canned the remainder.

DENY MURDERER WEDDING.

LEWES, England, Jan. 30.—John Williams, convicted murderer of Police Inspector Walls, at Eastbourne, went to his death on the gallows here today without having seen his child and having been denied the privilege of marrying Florence Seymour, its mother. He refused to confess.

To the last, Home Secretary McKenna refused to grant Williams' plea that he be allowed to marry the Seymour girl, to whom a girl baby was born after the man's conviction. The clergy took up the matter and urged the home secretary to permit the wedding, saying that a felon's daughter was better than a nameless child, but the official remained obdurate.

Workers in Every Variety of Skin Trouble

Many people have been heard to say that they used creams and lotions for years without effect, yet after five or six days of Stuart's Calcium Wafers their complexions were perfectly clear.

"Stuart's Calcium Wafers are Simply Grand to Remove Pimples and All Skin Eruptions"

It's easy to understand why. Creams and lotions only get at the surface, while Stuart's Calcium Wafers go right into the blood and instead of a sluggish deposit in the skin the impurities that cause skin diseases are destroyed in the perspiration that is exhaled through the pores in the form of invisible vapor. You'll never have a good complexion without pure blood, but you positively will have a fine, beautiful complexion if you use Stuart's Calcium Wafers.

They contain no poisonous drug of any kind, are perfectly harmless and can be taken with absolute freedom, and they work almost like magic. Calcium Sulphide, their principal ingredient, is the greatest blood cleanser known to science.

No matter how bad your skin may be, Stuart's Calcium Wafers will quickly work wonders with it. It's goodbye to blackheads, pimples, acne, boils, rash, eczema and a dirty "fill-up" complexion. You can get a box of Stuart's Calcium Wafers at any drug store at 50 cents a box, and you will be positively delighted with their wonderful effect.

FOREIGN MARKETS

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—The stock market opened steady with slight advances in leading issues.

11 a. m.—Toward the end of the first half hour, the market gained strength and activity was on a larger scale than on any previous day this week. Traders complained of the bullish tone, but it was evident that the general list was little affected. United States Steel showed an increase in strength. Southern Pacific sold up to 110, a high water mark. In the latter half of the hour the tone continued strong and American Can, having sold up to 44, was allowed to relapse a few points.

Noon—Lively trading marked the second hour. Efforts were made to squeeze the shorts and this was expected to result in advance all along the line.

2 p. m.—Trading decreased in the early afternoon and the market assumed a quieter tone.

The stock market closed steady.

SPORT NEWS

GALESVILLE MEN ENTER BONSPIEL

Curling Tournament to Be Held at Portage Under Auspices of W. C. A.

PORTAGE, Wis., Jan. 30.—The fifth annual state bonspiel of the Wisconsin Curling association will open in this city next Monday and will continue throughout the week. Entries from all parts of the state are arriving and State Secretary F. A. Rhyne said on Wednesday that there would be at least forty-five rinks participating in the four events which have been arranged as follows:

First event, Phillips Curling club trophy: First prize—Trophy and four chests containing twenty-four pieces of Oneida community silver. Second prize—Four gentlemen's traveling sets. Third prize—Four pair imported opera glasses. Fourth prize—Four imported stoves.

Second event, Conkle trophy: First prize—Trophy and four chests containing twenty-four pieces of Oneida community silver. Second prize—Four quart thermos bottles in leather cases. Third prize—Four pairs curling stone handles. Fourth prize—Four imported brier pipes.

Third event, Hotel Portage trophy: First prize—Four curling coats, tailor made from genuine Indian blankets. Second prize—Four silk umbrellas. Third prize—Four carving sets. Fourth prize—Four pairs gold cuff links.

Fourth event, Consolation, four boxes William Penn cigars.

It is probable that several rinks from St. Paul, Duluth, Superior and possibly Milwaukee will take part in the competition which will start at 12:30 p. m. on Monday, February 3. The first draws are to be made at 10 a. m. on that day and play will proceed through the week in two separate rink houses faking it possible for six games to be played at one time. The officers of the Wisconsin Curlers' association are: President, L. J. Tucker, Pardeeville; first vice president, David M. Sanderson, Cambria; second vice president, Gabe McMillan, Arlington; secretary and treasurer, F. Rhyne, Portage; executive committee, John A. Raup, Portage; Alex McDougall, Milwaukee; W. K. Parkinson, Phillips; W. J. Raath, Poyette; John Dick, Galesville; official umpire, W. H. Riehm, Portage.

The annual meeting of the association will be held on Tuesday evening at the Elks' club rooms. The visitors will be entertained the same evening at a social session and smoker.

INDIAN CRITICISES ACTION OF A. A. U.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 30.—Frank Cayou, athletic director of Washington university, Wednesday used strong terms in expressing his disgust at the action of the A. A. U. in the case of James Thorpe. Cayou is an Indian, a graduate of Carlisle and a close friend of Thorpe.

"This entire rumpus about James Thorpe," said Cayou, "was started by a jealous bunch of pigs who wanted something sensational to snort about. If every athlete is to be ousted from the A. A. U. who has played professional baseball, we will have no college or preparatory school baseball at all. In more than half the schools in the country men are admitted on various athletic teams when at least a dozen persons may know that they have received money for their services at some previous time.

"Jim is the greatest athlete the world has ever known. They'll all have to go a long way to find another who will accomplish what he has. The A. A. U. is run in a slipshod manner. The officials know that nine-tenths of the supposed amateurs play ball in the summer and receive pay for it, yet nothing is said. Then comes the world's greatest athlete, who won so much glory for the United States at the Olympic games, and they put him out of amateur contests forever."

LA CROSSE FIVE READY FOR GAME

A great amount of interest is being shown in the game of basketball to be played here on Friday night between the Madison and local high school teams. Both teams are running neck and neck in this district of the state and the winner of this game will in all probability have a chance to attend the state meet at Appleton under the direction of Lawrence college.

Madison defeated Richland Center high school team last Saturday night by the score of 33 to 22 and has already practically put Baraboo out of the running which speaks well for that team. The locals have not as yet started on their regular schedule.

Captain Weiss of the locals, is playing his usual strong game at center and with Dornbach, the only other experienced man, to help him, Coach Otto Seiler has built up a strong team. Krause is playing guard and Zeisler and Gardner are playing the forward positions.

ENGLISH PROPOSE A CHANGE IN OLYMPIC

LONDON, Jan. 30.—British sporting circles were gasping today over the revolutionary proposal by the South London Harriers' club, that the next Olympic games, to be held in Berlin in 1916, shall be open to professionals as well as amateurs.

President Willis of the Harriers, who prefaced his remarks by saying that the organization was the pioneer in amateur athletics in Great Britain, made the proposal at a dinner that professional contests. He did not refer to the Thorpe incident, but it was plain that it was that which inspired his statements.

Following the comment on the Thorpe matter by Capt. F. W. Jones of the British Olympic committee, all of the newspapers of London have discussed the affair and sentiment is about equally divided for and against the Indian.

CROSS OUTPOINTED BY JOE SHUGRUE

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—"Young Joe" Shugrue of New Jersey woke up this morning to find that he had become somewhat famous after decisively outpointed Leach Cross at Madison Square garden last night. Prior to his remarkable exhibition before a crowd of 6,000 fans the Jerseyite had been kept pretty much under cover.

Some fast games are expected to be played between the teams, as the boys are well matched.

WHITE SOX TRADE ENS TO BREWERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Jan. 30.—The Milwaukee baseball club has accepted First Baseman Ens, given by the Chicago White Sox to complete the deal by which Catcher Schalk was sold to Comiskey's team. Russell Blackburne, Jimmy Block and a bunch of coin were also part of the transfer price. Ens batted .300 in the Central association last year. He is 22 years of age, six feet tall and weighs 180 pounds. He bats and throws left handed.

FIGHT COMMISSION BILL IS PROPOSED

Assemblyman Hedding to Introduce Bill to Legalize Boxing in Wisconsin

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 30.—A bill to legalize boxing in this state, drawn along the lines of the New York law, will be introduced in the assembly either today or Friday. It is understood that the measure was prepared in Milwaukee and that it will be introduced in the assembly by Assemblyman A. J. Hedding of Milwaukee.

The bill which is patterned after the Fawley law of New York, has been drawn up and is ready to be introduced. The measure has been scrutinized by representatives of the Milwaukee Ministerial association and has their approval.

The measure provides for the appointment of a commission consisting of four members and a secretary. The bill provides for ten round bouts with five ounce gloves and every athletic club planning bouts must secure a license and also put up a bond of $10,000 to guarantee it will not violate any of the sections of the law.

Attorney Hedding, who has been selected to introduce the bill, is a University of Wisconsin graduate and also was a crack baseball player while here, and later played in the Lake Shore league.
